

Veni, Sancte Spiritus, et emitte caelitus lucis tuae radium.

(also called the "Golden Sequence," is a sequence prescribed in the Roman Liturgy for the Masses of Pentecost and is attributed to the thirteenth-century Pope Innocent III)

Come, Holy Spirit, send forth the heavenly radiance of your light.

Come, father of the poor, come, giver of gifts, come, light of the heart.

Greatest comforter, sweet guest of the soul, sweet consolation.

In labor, rest, in heat, temperance, in tears, solace.

O most blessed light, fill the inmost heart of your faithful.

Without your grace, there is nothing in us, nothing that is not harmful.

Cleanse that which is unclean, water that which is dry, heal that which is wounded.

Bend that which is inflexible, fire that which is chilled, correct what goes astray.

Give to your faithful, those who trust in you, the sevenfold gifts.

Grant the reward of virtue, grant the deliverance of salvation, grant eternal joy.

May the Holy Spirit come upon you as it came upon the disciples, causing them to boldly proclaim Jesus as our Lord!
