WORKSHOP OUTPUT AMI GENERAL ASSEMBLY & CONFERENCE 2011

DAY 3

GUIDE QUESTIONS

- Does your Armed Forces have programs that promote interfaith dialogue and mutual respect?
- What problems does your armed forces encounter in promoting interfaith dialogue and how are these addressed?
- In what ways are your militaries engaged in promoting respect and tolerance among all faiths in your larger societies?

ARMED FORCES PROGRAM THAT PROMOTES INTERFAITH DIALOGUE AND MUTUAL RESPECT

There's no existing program for the interfaith dialogue but our Armed Forces teach intercultural competence to promote mutual respect.

PROBLEMS ENCOUNTERED BY THE ARMED FORCES IN PROMOTING INTERFAITH AND IT IS ADDRESSED

- There's no problem encountered because the Armed Forces has no program that promotes interfaith dialogue.

(Though there's no program, when we deploy soldiers for foreign mission there is a pre-training program on culture and faith issues of the host nation mission essential.)

MILITARY WAYS IN PROMOTING RESPECT AND TOLERANCE AMONG ALL FAITHS

Generally, we are taught ethical and moral subjects in basic training which soldiers are expected to apply in the wider society.
