

AMI as an NGO

Prof. Dr. Fred van Iersel, Ph.D.

Advisor for theology and policy development at Roman Catholic Military chaplaincy Service in the Netherlands and Chair-holder of the Endowed Chair for Religion and Ethics in the Context of the Armed Forces at Tilburg University.

for

Table of content

- 1 Introduction
- 2 Objectives
- 3 Today's contribution
- 4 Lay apostolate
- 5 AMI's objectives
- 6 AMI as NGO: Catholic Church
- 7 AMI as NGO: United Nations
- 8 AMI and other international podia
- 9 AMI and national podia
- 10 Focus of AMI in near future
- 11 Instruments
- 12Final Remarks

1. Introduction

- AMI: friend
- Relevance of AMI
- Augustinian inspiration

- 2. AMI' s square of activities
- 3 Today's contribution
- 4 Lay Apostolate

5. AMI's objectives

- Promoting Christian vision
- Promoting international understanding and cooperation
- common study
- ecumenical mind
- information about AMI to non-members

6. AMI as an NGO: the Catholic Church

- Add specific expertise to Catholic NGO's
- Advisory role on military affairs for the Vatican

7 AMI as NGO: United Nations

- Focus: feel of religion and freedom of Conscience for the military
- New York
- Geneva
- Vienna

8 AMI annoter international podia

- Educational role (information, awareness)

9 AMI and national podia

- Preparatory meeting
- Evaluation and implementation

10 Focus of AMI

- Lay apostolate
- Religious freedom of soldiers
- Freedom of conscience

1 1 Instruments

- Extending good contacts in Rome
- Producing of educational material
- Modern network for lay apostolate

12 Final Remarks

- Educational role
- Systematic representation
- Coalitions of the able and willing
- Emphasis on national implementation

- Thus: From a square to a pentagon of activities (including education)

Thank you

- Please feel free to respond